Dear Pallab Sen Choudhury,

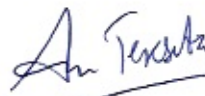

We are in receipt of your letter resigning from the services of our organisation. We have accepted the same and you are relieved with effect from the close of business hours on 28th July, 2012 (Saturday). You may contact our Office for settlement of your final dues during the office hours on any working day.

We thank you for the services rendered by you during your tenure (with effect from 1st Feb, 2010) with us. Your stay with us was a valuable one and we are sure you would continue to professionally contribute in your future assignment.

We wish you the very best for your bright future and in all your endeavours.
